

About the Contributors

Prof. Tapan Kumar Basantia is a Professor in the Department of Education at Central University of Jharkhand, Ranchi. He also served at Central University of South Bihar, Gaya, Assam University, Silchar, and Mizoram University, Aizawl, in various capacities. His academic works are published by Oxford University Press (OUP), SAGE, IGI Global, and other leading publishers worldwide. He has more than fifty-five publications in leading journals, including edited volumes. He is a member of many expert/review committees of IGNOU, NCTE, IKS-AICTE (MoE, Govt. of India), and UGC. Contact: tkbasantia@gmail.com

Dr Subhash Chander is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Education at the University of Delhi, with expertise in science pedagogy, inclusive education, and educational technology. He has served as Head of the Department of Education at Lady Irwin College and has guided students across B.Ed., M.Ed., and M.Phil. programs. His research contributions include publications on technology integration, inclusive classrooms, and innovative teaching methods, with recent works such as GenAI-Supported Lesson Planning for Inclusive Science Classrooms (2026) and Digital Learning for Mixed-Ability Classrooms (2025).

Dr Bidhan Gantait is an Assistant Professor of Education at the School of Education, Lovely Professional University, Punjab. He served as an Education Specialist at the Educational Technology and Management Academy in Gurugram. He was the Coordinator of The World of Learning Project of ETMA. He earned a PhD in Education from the Central University of South Bihar, Gaya. His research interest is Geography Education. Contact: bidhangantait93@gmail.com

Prof. Teruhisa Horio is the Representative of the Society of Article 9 Global Charter and Professor Emeritus of the University of Tokyo. He is a leading critical voice on Japan's modern school system, famous for his seminal book, Educational Thought and Ideology in Modern Japan. Prof. Horio strongly critiques state control over schooling. He argues that authentic education must nurture independent, creative citizens rather than serving political indoctrination or corporate interests, making his work foundational to post-war democratic educational theory. Contact: horiot@mist.dti.ne.jp

Dr Kajal Kalsi, Assistant Professor of Sociology at University of Jammu, specialises in Borderland Studies, Sociology of Forced Migration, Gender, Caste and Social Stratification. A Jawaharlal Nehru University doctorate, she explores the socio-political realities of conflict-affected societies in J&K. Contact: kalsikajal92@gmail.com

Dr Kamiya Kumar completed her advanced academic training in the United Kingdom before earning her PhD from Teachers College, Columbia University. She has contributed meaningful peer-reviewed literature to the global academic community. Her published research papers include seminal works in the Journal of Peace Education. Her writing bridges Western macro-comparative theories with grassroots youth participatory action research (YPAR) to empower student voices and design holistic, conflict-transformative curricula. Dr Kamiya Kumar has recently launched the Bluebells Centre for Peace (BCP). Contact: kamiyakumar@gmail.com

Dr Jack Maebuta was the Solomon Islands National University Pro-Vice Chancellor (Academic). He was a Senior Fellow in Educational Administration at the Institute of Education, University of the South Pacific (USP), and, in this role, he served as the National Lead on a number of education projects in the Solomon Islands. He is currently a Fellow in Education Policy in the Institute of Education, the University of the South Pacific, Solomon Islands Campus. Dr Maebuta has published several peer-reviewed journal articles and book chapters in the areas of education and peacebuilding. Contact: jack.maebuta@usp.ac.fj" 93

Prof S. P. Malhotra, Director of the ETMA, Gurugram, Haryana, has been a National Fellow at the National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration, and a chief consultant to the Ministry of Human Resource Development, New Delhi. He has authored more than 150 research papers in Educational Technology and has completed over 50 research projects sponsored by NCERT, UGC, and the Government of India. He has been on various general and executive bodies of NCTE, NAAC, and UGC. He is a member of the UGC's Quality Higher Education Committee. Nepal. Contact: spmalhotra.2008@gmail.com

Prof. Marmar Mukhopadhyay is Chairman of the WCCES Task Force on Peace Education and Editor of the Peace Education Chronicle. A globally published author and comparative education scholar, he has served as Professor and Director of NIEPA, Chairman of India's National Open School, and Vice-President (Asia) of ICDE, Oslo. He represented India at UNESCO's E-9 Summit, the Afghanistan Reconstruction Meet at UNESCO in Paris, and ICE 44, and has advised UNESCO, UNICEF, ISRO, COL, and leading technology corporations. His work advances values-driven reform and global dialogue on peace education. Contact: marmar.mukhopadhyay@gmail.com

Prof. Renu Nanda is Professor of Education and Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Jammu. She is the Convener of the Board of Studies in Teacher Education. She has more than 30 years of teaching and research experience. She has published and presented more than 200 research papers in several national and international conferences, seminars and workshops in India and abroad. She served as a resource person at more than 200 national and international events. She is the Honorary Executive Director of the World Council of Comparative Education Societies. Contact: listenrenu@yahoo.com

Prof. Matheus Batalha Moreira Nery is a Professor in the Department of Education at the Federal University of Sergipe and the Chair of MAC/ASL. He was a Visiting Scholar at the RLL Department at Harvard University in 2020, and studied International Law at the Hague Academy of International Law at the Peace Palace (UN). His research interests include Psychology, International Relations and Higher Education. He participated in Erasmus Mundus and 100,000 Strong in the Americas, was honoured by the White House's international education innovation fund, and has led efforts to establish the Tiradentes Institute at the University of Massachusetts, Boston. Contact: matheusbatalha@academico.ufs.br

Dr Paramesh Roy is the Education Specialist at the Educational Technology and Management Academy, Gurgaon. He completed his doctoral studies specialising in Educational Technology, Blended Learning, E-Waste Management, and Content and Module Development at Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, Amarkantak, India. He has published several research papers in reputed journals. Contact: parameshroy31@gmail.com

Dr Ramesh C. Sharma is an Associate Professor at the School of Global Affairs at Dr B. R. Ambedkar University Delhi. Dr Sharma was a Visiting Professor at Universidade do Estado da Bahia, UNEB, Brazil, University of Fiji, Fiji, Director of Commonwealth Educational Media Centre for Asia (CEMCA), Director of the Institute of Distance and Continuing Education (IDCE), University of Guyana, Guyana, South America; and Regional Director, Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU). He has extensively researched and published in the areas of e-learning, Instructional Design, Open Educational Resources, Open and distance learning, educational technology, and Research. Contact: ramesh.sharma.c@gmail.com